MEALS

We offer a wide range of meals to suit teams needing a sit down meal after the games. We can accommodate more than one team if you are wanting to celebrate after a final or with the traveling teams.

We have 2 spaces available, where teams can sit together (or separately) to enjoy a sit down meal before or after a game. Being located on site allows easy access, without the need to travel to another location.

We understand the nature of games running over time, we keep an eye on the games for you so you don't need to worry. If the games run over, we will be prepared for you to eat a little later as well.

We can also provide these meals to take away if you are needing to leave the venue in a timely manner.

These meals can be delivered to your accommodation, hot and ready to eat.

Plates, cutlery can be included, please ask for these to be added to your quote.

Recovery meals

We can provide a post-game meal with plenty of protein and carbs, designed to replenish muscles and supply your body with the right nutrients for adequate recovery.

Being located on site at Nga Puna Wai, we can offer a recovery meal within the required time frame after a match to make sure you get the most benefit.

Our recovery meals start from $30 per person, but we can work within your budget, so please talk to us, we are sure to be able to accommodate.
